Police Intelligence.

EX-PIREN CHARGED WITH THE COMMISSION OF A BURGLARY.

Sergeant Hughes and Ward, of the Twenty-ninth precinct, on Tuesday night, received information that Daniel O'Brien and Charles and James O'Neil, ex-members of Hose Company No. 37, had broken into the premises formerly occupied by them, in Twenty-ninth street, near Murray avenue, by means of bursting a window. The tenants, however, did not return to the premises and arrested the parties named. The police officers alleged that the accused parties, after entering the Hose house, which had been closed and locked by the Fire Commissioners, did not intend to commit any robbery, but the defendants insisted that they did nothing of the sort, only entering the place after some clothes they had left there. The defendants were yesterday arraigned before Justice Godwin, while Mr. Charles J. Finney, Frank and the Board of Fire Commissioners appeared and preferred a complaint for burglary against them. The magistrate committed the prisoners for trial, in default of $1,000 bail each.

BRAVE ASSAULT AND ROBBERY.

Jacob F. Feisich, residing at 345 Third avenue, yesterday appeared before Justice Dodge, and preferred a charge of robbery against William Brierly, alias "Young War," a blackamoor twenty-two years of age. In his affidavit Feisich sets forth that on Tuesday afternoon, while watching the temperance procession corner of Thirty-third and Twenty-sixth streets, he saw a negro, and another man, who he believed to be a negro, knock him down, after which, by force and violence, he stole his watch and ran away. Feisich followed in pursuit, and was knocked down the second time by Brierly. Officer Stivens, of the Eighteenth precinct, arrested the alleged robber, and the magistrate committed him for trial in default of fifteen hundred dollars bail.
